All hampers containing fresh food must be signed for upon delivery. We are unable to offer product or delivery refunds for failed fresh food deliveries that are due to the recipient not being at home or due to us having been provided with an incorrect delivery address.

THE SMALL PRINT

DELIVERY OF HAMPERS CONTAINING NO FRESH FOOD

All our goods require a signature upon delivery, with the exception of our Letterbox Gifts which are sent via Royal Mail or Hermes.

If the recipient is not there to receive a parcel the carrier will deliver to an immediate neighbour or alternatively leave a card with contact details so that re-delivery or collection can be arranged. If the carrier doesn't receive a response to the card they will return the gift to us after 4 – 5 working days. However, during the very busy Christmas period we do instruct our delivery companies to leave parcels in a safe and dry location and put a card through the door to say where the parcel has been left if the recipient is not available to receive it. We consider this to be in the best interests of the recipient.
